Alberto Rodriguez becomes Managing Director of Carmila Spain

Sebastian Palacios will leave the Group at the end of January 2024, after ten years spent developing Carmila in Spain.

He will be succeeded as Managing Director of Carmila Spain by Alberto Rodriguez, until now Director of Operations for Carmila Spain. In this capacity, he joins Carmila's Executive Committee.

Carmila Spain's activities will be placed under the supervision of Pierre-Yves Thirion, Carmila's Chief Financial Officer.

At the age 54, Alberto Rodriguez joined the Carmila Group in March 2014 as Portfolio Manager, before being promoted to Operations Director, the position he has held until today. Prior to this, he held various positions in major commercial real estate companies such as Unibail Rodamco Westfield, CBRE, Metrovacesa, Riofisa, Aguirre&Newman (now Savills) and Decathlon. At Carmila Spain, he played an active role in the asset rotation program and initiated several major asset renovation projects.

"I would like to thank Sebastian Palacios for ten years of commitment to creating, developing and ensuring the success of Carmila in Spain. In particular, he has succeeded in developing quality relationships with retailers and customers. I wish Alberto Rodriguez every success as Managing Director of Carmila Spain, a country in which Carmila has numerous development projects", says Marie Cheval, Chairman and CEO of Carmila.
